1. Albert P. Ray, hereby certify that I am Production Analyst in charge of the Ships' Statistics Section of the Bureau of Ships, Navy Department, Washington, D. C., and in such capacity I have prepared this table from Official Records of the U. S. Government and from records of the Japanese Government; the U. S. Government records being an official document prepared by the Office of Naval Intelligence and setting forth the names, numbers and assignments of ships with the tonnage of these ships prepared by me from records in my section; and the records of the Japanese Government being those certified by Hidemi YOSHIDA in exhibits in the International Military Tribunal for the Far East. In this table the Japanese totals have been merely copied by me without change from Exhibit #3003-A, 'The United States' totals shown in said Exhibit #3003-A, however, have been changed by me as required to conform to the above indicated U. S. Naval records prepared by the Office of Naval Intelligence on the basis of the definitions of the respective terms) "under construction", "delivered", "on hand", "commissioned", and "miscellaneous" as given in the certificate signed at Tokyo, Japan on 26 September 1947 by Hidemi YOSHIDA. I further certify that the above table and footnotes are true and accurate to the best of my knowledge and belief.

COMMITTEE

1. Albert D. Bay, hereby certify that I am Production Analyst in charge of the Ship Statistics Section of the Bureau of Ships, Navy Department, Washington, D. C., and in such capacity I have prepared this table from Official Records of the U. S. Government and from exhibits of the Japanese Government; the U. S. Government records being an official document prepared by the Office of Naval Intelligence and setting forth the names, number and displacement of ships with the tonnage of these ships prepared by me from records in my section; and the records of the Japanese Government being those certified by Hidami YOSHIDA in exhibits in the International Military Tribunal for the Far East. In this table the Japanese records have been merely copied to us without change from Exhibit 43007-3. The United States' records shown in said Exhibit 2007-3, however, have been changed by us as required to conform to the above indicated U. S. Naval records prepared by the Office of Naval Intelligence as the basis of the completion of the respective terms, "under construction" ("delivered", "on hand", "commissioned", and "discontinued") as given in the certificate signed at Tokyo, Japan on 25 September 1947 by Hidami YOSHIDA. I further certify that the above table is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge and belief.

CERTIFICATE

I, Albert B. Ray, hereby certify that I am Production Analyst in charge of the Ships' Statistics Section of the Bureau of Ships, Navy Department, Washington, D. C., and in such capacity I have prepared this table from Official Records of the U. S.

ment; the U. S. Government records being an official document prepared by the Office of Naval Intelligence and setting forth the names, numbers and assignments of ships with the tonnage of these ships prepared by me from records in my section; and the records of the Japanese Government being those certified by Hidemi YOSHIDA in exhibits in the International Military Tribunal for the Far East. In this table the Japanese totals have been merely copied by me without change from Exhibit #3003-A. The United States' totals shown in said Exhibit #3003-A, however, have been changed by me as required to conform to the above indicated U. S. Naval records prepared by the Office of Naval Intelligence on the basis of the definition of the respective term(s) "under construction" ("delivered", "on hand", "commissioned", and "miscellaneous") as given in the certificate signed at Tokyo, Japan on 26 September 1947 by Hidemi YOSHIDA. I further certify that the above table and footnote are true and accurate to the best of my
